MAKEOVERMANIA

Beauty and glamour in Florence, courtesy of Starhotels

Imagine a day in Florence amidst works of art and other aesthetic temptations....

A stimulatingly creative search for a new look whilst taking a break in a city where beauty abounds.

Starhotels is offering an extraordinary package for people intent on designer shopping at discount prices, on finding a personal style by riding the emotional waves of a city where the terms beauty and harmony were coined.

The special rate is 280 euros a night, in a junior suite for two at the Starhotels Michelangelo in the heart of Florence.

The offer is valid for July and August and includes: shuttle service to and from The Mall outlet, a personalized welcome on arrival at the Outlet and a relaxing tour round the glamorous world of top designer labels.

And after shopping, a moment for oneself maybe in the form of a rejuvenating massage for two people and a make up & hair styling session for one at "Atelier Ciro, a few minutes walking distance.

To round off the fashion day, supper at the Assaggi wine bar in the Starhotels Michelangelo, for two people, this too included in the package.

Afterwards, under the stars, open-air concerts in the magical Boboli gardens, strolls along the banks of the Arno, music and art.

Be guided by the city's unique appeal to those in search of beauty – forget about the Stendhal syndrome – and enjoy the shopping, beauty treatments, art and gourmet restaurants.

An experience that can change your life and your look!
