Rooms and Suites

The Tourist's 134 hotel rooms have been recently refurbished to provide the ultimate in style and comfort for your business trip or holiday in Milan.

Our accommodation pairs contemporary furnishings and sumptuous fabrics with warm, wood and stone interiors. And, to add a little Milanese flair, each room features dramatic backlit photography of the city's most iconic sights.

Restaurant & bar

La Cuccagnina at the Tourist is renowned as one of the best restaurants in Milan serving a beautifully crafted menu of Italian dishes with an international twist.

Sit back and savour exceptional cuisine complemented by original Maurizio Galimberti artworks. Or for anything from morning coffees, light bites and finger food to a delicious selection of drinks, our L'Agora bar offers all in a bright, welcoming atmosphere.

Meetings & events

Conveniently placed in the center of the business district with excellent transport links, the Tourist is perfect for conferences, conventions or business meetings in Milan. Inside you'll find exhibition spaces and seven flexible, hi-tech meeting rooms for up to 130 people each.

Add to this our experienced team, and our stunning La Cuccagnina restaurant for dinners and receptions, and you'll have everything you need for an unforgettable event.

Services

Nothing is too much trouble at the Tourist. From room service and free Wi-Fi throughout the hotel to laundry and dry cleaning, you'll find a range of thoughtfully chosen services to make sure your stay is effortless.

There's also a fitness room, expert local guidance from our concierge service and the opportunity to rent a car with a personal driver.
