

Hotel d'Inghilterra Roma – Starhotels Collezione
To regain its position as the hotel preferred by the international jetset
More than fifty rooms are being renovated by April 2017

Rome, April 2017. The Hotel d'Inghilterra has a completely new vibrant flair. This historic property, one of the most iconic luxury boutique hotels in the heart of Rome acquired by Starhotels in July 2016, has been undergoing a major room revamp that commenced in January 2017.

Thus, the property shows a unique character that revives the hotel's remarkable background while at the same time emphasizing the charm and the eclectic originality of this Roman masterpiece.

The renovation of 51 rooms in cross categories has been completed and these rooms, boasting a new sophisticated interior design, are now ready to welcome guests.

In the novel intimate and elegant ambiance, rich colors are dominated by various shades of peacock blue, cardinal red and vermilion as a reverence to roman historical quintessence, getting inspiration from the scenic and compelling location of the hotel.

In the newly refurbished rooms, modish upholsteries, lamps, carpets and paintings have been introduced to create an even more cozy and refined atmosphere.

Despite all the changes indeed, the architect remained true to the original style of an aristocratic mid-sixteenth century residence.

As in all rooms, guestroom facilities have been implemented as well, and improved with hi-speed wifi and new smart TVs.

A luxury five-star hotel with timeless charm loved by the international elite, the Hotel d'Inghilterra has welcomed in its history leading names, just to mention a few: Ernest Hemingway, Richard Burton, Elisabeth Taylor and Gregory Peck.

Joining Starhotels Collezione, Hotel d'Inghilterra has been enriched not only with new rooms and décor, but also with a crisp attention to details throughout the common areas and its interiors.

This extraordinary hotel offers discreet and personalized service that guarantees an even more exclusive guest experience for the demanding luxury travelers.
