Destination

Vicenza is unlike anywhere else in the world: a vibrant, wonderfully elegant city that has retained its Renaissance atmosphere. Everything is steeped in the personality of Andrea Palladio, the Renaissance genius who had a remarkable influence on the architecture of the centuries that followed, up to the present day. The city is surrounded by verdant green countryside, home to many holiday villas designed by Palladio for noble Venetian families, all waiting to be discovered.

A heavenly retreat in the Berici Hills

The exclusive Hotel Villa Michelangelo is a little corner of paradise nestled in the small village of Arcugnano on the slopes of the Berici Hills, a beautiful retreat that guarantees a relaxing stay. The Palladian-style villa that houses the hotel was built in the eighteenth century as the summer residence of the aristocratic Tomi family and is surrounded by a twelve-acre park with centuries-old trees. The hotel's interiors retain the villa's original Palladian style, with high ceilings, antique furniture and elegant Venetian mosaic floors.

Key features

- A unique location on the slopes of the Berici Hills, ideal for an unforgettable, relaxing holiday in total peace and quiet.
- The spectacular swimming pool and surrounding landscape of gently rolling hills covered with olive trees.
- The La Loggia restaurant with its creative, tradition-inspired menu and well-stocked cellar.
- The most beautiful cities in Veneto, such as Venice, Padua and Verona, are easily accessible via the nearby motorway.
- Just 4 miles from Vicenza, home of Palladio's most famous masterpieces.

Royal Rooms

Hotel Villa Michelangelo welcomes its guests in rooms and suites fit for royalty, with exposed beams, original Venetian mosaic and antique parquet floors, delightful marble bathrooms and balconies overlooking the garden and the marvellous surrounding scenery. The subtle, refined antique furnishings are perfectly in harmony with the relaxing beauty of the natural surroundings.
