London offers so many attractions and landmarks that - so the saying goes - every time you return you are sure to discover something new. Don't miss Big Ben and the Houses of Parliament, Westminster Abbey, St. Paul's Cathedral, Tower Bridge, the Tower of London and, of course, Buckingham Palace.

Museum lovers should head to the British Museum, National Gallery, Victoria & Albert Museum and Tate Modern.
Location

The Pelham is across the street from South Kensington underground station, with direct links to and from Heathrow airport. Piccadilly Circus, Oxford Street and many iconic central London locations are only a few tube stops away.

Moreover, it is located just minutes from the Victoria & Albert and Natural History Museums, Harrods, Hyde Park and The Royal Albert Hall.

An iconic retreat in the heart of London

The Pelham is an elegant boutique hotel in the heart of South Kensington. It is located a short walk from Kensington Gardens, the inspiration for the eclectic, brightly coloured design of its interiors, created by designer Kit Kemp.
The hotel's interiors were designed by Kit Kemp. Starhotels has refurbished many elements, while maintaining the same colourful aesthetic.

A coveted address in the heart of South Kensington, ideally located for the capital's main attractions.

Combines tradition and modernity with the atmosphere of a townhouse and country residence.

All 52 bedrooms and suites have retained their original personality.

The Pelham Hotel is the ideal venue for private events, from board meetings and press conferences to baby showers and cocktail parties.
All the rooms and suites have an individual style and design, expressed by a unique mix of antique and modern furniture, paintings and precious fabrics.

The wooden and metal window frames enhance the design of the furnishings, while natural light from the floor-to-ceiling windows add extra radiance to the interiors.
