

HELVETIA & BRISTOL

FIRENZE

A historic townhouse in the heart of Florence with timeless charm

Hotel Helvetia & Bristol is a magnificent 19th-century townhouse whose elegant style and enviable location in the centre of Florence captures the hearts of the most demanding guests with its timeless charm and impeccable service.

An exquisite symbol of Florentine history, it is also one of the most prestigious hotels in the city. Built in 1894, it has always welcomed influential international figures, from Gabriele D'Annunzio to Luigi Pirandello in the last century, to Tom Ford, Ken Follett and Tom Hanks in recent years.

Location

The hotel is in the Unesco site, a few steps from Palazzo Strozzi, a Florentine Renaissance masterpiece that hosts the city's major art exhibitions, around the corner from Via de' Tornabuoni, the most exclusive shopping street in Florence. An exceptional location, just a short walk from the Duomo, Piazza della Signoria and Ponte Vecchio. The hotel is the ideal starting point for visiting the city on foot, discovering its artistic and architectural treasures and enjoying its social atmosphere and nightlife.
