THE INTERNATIONAL
JETSET, A SHORT DISTANCE FROM
PIAZZA DI SPAGNA

An intimate five-star hotel with timeless charm. Loved by the international élite, the hotel has hosted many celebrities; among them, Hemingway, Elizabeth Taylor and Gregory Peck. The hotel is located in the historic heart of Rome and is a favorite destination for those seeking a unique experience in one of the most beautiful cities in the world. Built in 1500 as a noble residence for the guests of the Torlonia princes, it was converted into an elegant hotel in 1845 and known as the Hotel d'Angleterre thanks to the famous English poet John Keats, who, in those years, was always surrounded by his many illustrious countrymen.

Location

A short walk from the legendary steps of Piazza di Spagna and the fervor of Via Condotti, Via Borgognona and Via Frattina, the historic fashion district, the hotel is in an exceptional location, close to all of Rome's main attractions including the Trevi Fountain and the Roman Forum, as well as Villa Borghese, the city's largest park.
