

HOTEL VILLA MICHELANGELO

VICENZA

A DREAMY
RETREAT IN THE BERICI
HILLS

A dreamy retreat in the Berici Hills, just 8 km from beautiful Vicenza. A corner of paradise surrounded by greenery where you can enjoy a relaxing stay embraced by the finest comforts and fully experience the area's rich history, art, food and wine.

The hotel, in terms of style and elegance, fits perfectly into the beautiful setting of the Palladian Villas.

Originally built in the 18th century as the summer residence of the noble Tomi family, it has become an exclusive resort with pool, restaurant with a view and heliport.

Location

The resort is located a few kilometres from Vicenza, a thriving and cosmopolitan city, declared a World Heritage Site in 1994 and known for its many buildings designed by the illustrious architect from Padua, including the majestic Basilica Palladiana in Piazza dei Signori, now home to high-end exhibitions, and the Teatro Olimpico. A few kilometres far from the Berici Hills Golf Club and from the cities of Padua, Verona and Vicenza.

- Distance from Vicenza's train station: km 7
- Distance from airport: Venice's Marco Polo airport km 76
