Italy at heart

Located in the heart of 15 Italian destinations, our hotels show the love for Italy and its beauties: each one is the expression of the city that hosts it and of its style, history and character, although always maintaining a distinct personality. Even outside Italy, attention to detail and luxury Italian lifestyle are the defining traits of our hospitality: from Paris to New York and London, our guests are welcomed with a warm smile and a professional staff able to anticipate and satisfy their every need.

We aim to be ambassador of Italy's food and wine tradition, which is particularly close to our hearts: dining at Starhotels is an authentic quality experience. Ingredients are carefully sourced and selected, many coming from small-scale producers with short supply chains.

Starhotels Collezione's excellence is also expressed in its gourmet restaurants, allowing guests to enjoy every part of their travel experience. They can appreciate fine dining menus, some of them created by renowned chefs, accompanied by a selection of the finest local, Italian and international wines, all served in sophisticated settings.

Social Responsibility

In addition to the commitment to provide a comfortable and unique stay to our guests, Starhotels has always been sensitive to social and cultural events, constantly investing in the enhancement of the Italian historical and artistic heritage. Thanks to the company's sponsorships, major restorations have taken place: from the 28 statues of the "Illustrious Men" that adorn the Uffizi's Loggia in Florence, to the Madonna del Velo painted by Raffello, the Maschio Angioino in Naples and the latest work done at Piazzale Michelangelo in Florence.

Since 2014, Starhotels has also been member of the Palazzo Strozzi Partners Committee, which supports the Palazzo Strozzi Foundation.

Starhotels also supports Italian craftsmanship excellence with the project La Grande Bellezza – The Dream Factory, a contemporary patronage campaign launched in 2019 and signed by Starhotels.

Vaunting the full support of Elisabetta Fabri, the project relies on two leading institutions whose mission is to safeguard top Italian craftsmanship, Associazione OmA – Osservatorio dei Mestieri d'Arte, Fondazione Cologni dei Mestieri d'Arte, besides the publishing company Gruppo Editoriale.

The virtuous actions of the project include the creation of a collection of custom-made home décor, events and exhibitions dedicated to high craftsmanship, a prize for young emerging talents and the appointment of expert craftsmen in hotel renovations.

Starhotels is also involved in important charitable campaigns of social nature such as those started in 2015 with Pangea Onlus Foundation against women violence.

Sustainability

Environmental sustainability is an issue to which we are deeply committed and is a hallmark of our hotels. They all respect the environment, using low-impact generators to reduce CO2 emissions and energy consumption, as well as low consumption LED lighting and high efficiency heating systems.

In particular, Starhotels E.c.ho. in Milan, which opened its doors in 2011, has been entirely designed with environmentally-friendly technology to reduce energy consumption through the use of eco-sustainable furniture. The totality of the architectural and design elements that make Starhotels E.c.ho. a true jewel of eco-friendly construction has earned the hotel not only the 2012 European Hotel Design Award for sustainable design, but also the Green Globe certification, a prestigious recognition given only after strict auditing process, a result that has recently been confirmed with the Green Globe Gold Status thanks to a compliance score of 95%.

In 2019 Starhotels also launched the Plastic-free project, a commitment to lowering its environmental impact and banishing single-use plastic products in favour of 100% recycled and biodegradable products.

“Every year more than 2,000,000 people from all over the world stay in our hotels, seeking authentic travel experiences: these travelers have high expectations, which begin with their hotel stay. That’s why we believe that the art of hospitality should respect a time-honored, ever effective formula: knowing how to preempt their needs and exceed their expectations.

Culture, creativity and art form our identity. We continue to harness the heritage of knowledge and sharing as the driving force for our growth.

Our company is above all a family: each year we celebrate anniversaries by donations to preserve Italy’s cultural heritage, planning investments in monuments or artistic enterprises. In 2015, to celebrate the group’s 35th year, we donated one million euros to the City of Florence for restructuring the balustrades in Piazzale Michelangelo” Elisabetta Fabri, President and CEO of Starhotels
