

Castille Paris – Starhotels Collezione: A Valentine's Escape in Paris's Most Romantic Neighbourhood

London, 21 January 2026 – Paris has long been synonymous with romance, but for couples seeking a more intimate, refined take on the City of Love this Valentine's Day, Castille Paris offers a quietly elegant escape in one of the capital's most storied neighbourhoods.

Set on a discreet street in Paris's historic 1st arrondissement, Castille Paris occupies a location where romance unfolds naturally, through evening strolls, candlelit streets and a sense of old-world Paris that feels both cinematic and timeless. One of the city's oldest districts, the area is defined by its walkability and understated charm, far removed from the bustle of Paris's more touristic quarters.

From the hotel's doors, couples can wander hand-in-hand to Place Vendôme, the Louvre after dark, and the Tuileries Garden, where winter walks offer moments of calm and intimacy in the heart of the city. The nearby Opéra Garnier adds a cultural flourish to a Valentine's itinerary, while the hotel's immediate proximity to the legendary Maison Chanel places it at the crossroads of Parisian fashion, fragrance and enduring love stories.

At the heart of this romantic setting sits L'Assaggio, Castille Paris' refined Italian restaurant, where Parisian elegance meets Italian warmth. On 14 February, L'Assaggio unveils a special seven-course Valentine's tasting menu, accompanied by live music, designed to celebrate love through flavour, atmosphere and artistry.

The menu showcases seasonal, ingredient-led Italian cuisine, with highlights including Gillardeau oysters with lime-scented apple brunoise, pan-seared red mullet with sorrel and passion fruit, ricotta and pumpkin ravioli with shellfish bisque and red prawn tartare, and roasted turbot with bergamot-infused white butter sauce. Desserts, from wild strawberry creations to the ethereal “Nuages d’Amour” with Chantilly cream, bring the evening to a romantic close.

This Valentine’s celebration also marks one of the first major menus under the leadership of newly appointed Executive Chef Marco Terenghi. A rising talent with experience in Michelin-starred kitchens across France and Italy, Terenghi brings a contemporary, precise approach to Italy’s great regional traditions, offering an elegant yet heartfelt expression of Italian cuisine in Paris

For couples wishing to extend the romance beyond a single evening, Castille Paris’ Love is in the Air package transforms Valentine’s Day into a complete Parisian escape. Available throughout February (excluding 14 February), the offer includes a two-night stay, daily breakfast, Valentine’s cocktails at L’Assaggio Bar, Champagne and chocolates in-room, a bouquet of fresh flowers, a romantic dinner for two and a surprise! The perfect companion for exploring the city together.

Blending Parisian charm with Italian style Castille Paris offers a Valentine’s experience rooted as much in place as in pleasure. Whether discovering Paris’s most beautiful landmarks on foot, soaking up the atmosphere of a historic neighbourhood or sharing a candlelit dinner accompanied by live music, this is a celebration of love shaped by the romance of its surroundings.

Castille: Parisian charm, Italian style

At Castille, French charm and Italian hospitality blend into a delicate combination. In a refined ambience marked by antiques combined with contemporary furnishings, attention to details enhances the typical French aristocratic architecture of the 18th century.

Located in the heart of 1st Arrondissement, next to the legendary Maison Chanel, this 5-star hotel is just a short walk from Place Vendôme, the Louvre, and Opera Garnier. With its seductive 108 rooms and suites, 2 luxury meeting rooms, and L’Assaggio Restaurant signed by Ugo Alciati and led by Marco Terenghi, Castille Paris encloses all the charm of Ville Lumière.

L’Assaggio is open daily from 12:30 pm to 10:30 pm. Every evening, except Sunday, the restaurant hosts live piano performances from 7:30 pm.
